SENSATION IN COURT

Remarkable Scene During the Trial of Youtsey in Kentucky.

OUTBREAK BY THE DEFENDANT

Hysteria or Dementia Caused Prisoner to Lose Self Control Complete Collapse Followed.

Georgetown Ky Oct 9 One of the most remarkable scenes ever enacted in a Kentucky court occurred tonight in the Youtsey trial the defendant himself being the chief participant The court room was crowded at the time and the excitement was intense —Detective Armstrong the Louisville detective had just told of his talks with Youtsey before and after his arrest Then Arthur Goebel was put on the stand and Judge Ben Williams who for the first time appeared for the prosecution did the questioning

Arthur Goebel said

"I talked with Youtsey the day he was arrested late in the afternoon in the jail in Frankfort in reference to the murder of my brother"

A Sudden Outbreak.

Just at this point Youtsey arose and his attorneys and in a loud voice said

"It is untrue It is a lie I never spoke a word to that man in my life or he me"

Col Crawford told him to be quiet and sit down and others took hold of him

"I will not sit down I never said a word to that man—it is untrue"

He was shouting by this time and [illegible] Youtsey's wife sprang to his side and while endeavoring to make him sit down could be heard saying "Now you have killed my husband I suppose you are satisfied"

Refused to Be Quiet

Then Youtsey hysterically shouted again

"I am innocent—there is no blood on my hands the [illegible] men are [illegible] away"

Two of three deputy sheriffs went [illegible] and grabbed him He struggled [illegible] and said

"Let me alone I will not sit down"

Arthur Goebel meanwhile sat sphynx-like in the witness chair and did not turn his head Finally after Youtsey was forced into a seat he shouted again

"Goebel is not dead—all the demons in hell could not kill him"

"Mr Sheriff if the defendant does not behave himself put handcuffs on him" said Judge Cantrill

Collapse Followed

Meanwhile the audience could not be forced to keep their seats until the judge threatened to fine those who stood up Youtsey settled back in his chair closed his eyes and seemed in a state of collapse He waved his handkerchief above his head in an aimless sort of way and groaned and cried hysterically Finally quiet was restored and Judge Williams asked Arthur Goebel another question when Col Crawford asked a postponement of the trial until tomorrow on account of the defendant's condition Judge Cantrill said he could see no cause or reason for the defendant's outbreak but in justice to the attorneys he would postpone the case until tomorrow

Mr Franklin said the commonwealth had not the slightest objection to adjourning until tomorrow and the court so ordered

Youtsey still occupied his chair with his eyes closed apparently in a half-fainting condition After the crowd passed out Jailer Reed and deputies carried Youtsey to the jail as he was unable to walk

Various reasons are assigned for his unseemly outbreak the first being that his long confinement and the strain of the trial caused him to become hysterical and lose control of himself Another is that he is really demented as shown by his remarks that Goebel was not dead Youtsey is being attended by physicians and relatives at the jail and his condition is deemed critical

Detroit Mich Oct 9—The special session of the state legislature called last Friday by Governor Pingree will meet in Lansing tomorrow [illegible] The session is called for the purpose of considering a joint resolution authorizing submission to the people of a constitutional amendment permitting the taxing of railroads and other corporations on the actual cash value of their property instead of their earnings as at present and to consider the repealing of the special charters held by the Michigan Central Lake Shore and Grand Trunk railroads in Michigan.

That the special charters will be repealed is almost a certainty as the Michigan Central agreed today after a conference with a special committee appointed by the last legislature for the purpose to submit to the repeal of their charter under certain [illegible] The other two roads have already intimated that they will do as the Michigan Central does By the agreement reached today the roads will be allowed six months to reorganize under the general railway law of the state after the repeal of their charters and the legislature will pass a law fixing some court of competent jurisdiction as the arbiter of damages to be awarded them

They hired a Chinese to get daily news as to the progress of the relief column and promised large additional reward in case his statements should prove to be true but of course they could not at any time fully depend on information until the relief column actually arrived They bribed some [illegible] of eggs Some days the Coltman family could get five eggs sometimes only one After the relief the professor assisted in taking up the partly decomposed body of Baron Von Ketteler

At 12 [illegible] o clock the governor was escorted to the Merchants exchange where he responded to a hearty reception with a short speech A carriage drive that had been planned by the local reception committee with stops at various places of interest was vetoed by Governor Roosevelt who instead took a horseback ride through the boulevards and forest park with Dr [illegible] Garrison Jr of St Louis a member of the Rough Rider regiment in Cuba

In his speech at the Merchants exchange Governor Roosevelt said

"I am glad to meet you this morning and to thank you for the courtesy you have extended to me Here the hum of industry never ceases and so I will have to talk against it I am usually talking for it (Applause) One feature that is peculiarly pleasant to me [illegible] has among its citizens so many of the men who wore the gray and of their sons I think that if the Spanish war had done nothing else it would have been from our standpoint well worth while because of the realizing sense that it gave us of the fact that all the nations are thinking of the past and that we stand before the rest of the world as Americans and nothing else (Applause)

"I [illegible] under General Joe Wheeler—fighting Joe Wheeler—and there was one very amusing incident which occurred while we were at Kettle hill General Joe got very much interested in the fight and addressed a group of us of whom I suppose four fifths were northerners He said 'Wade into them wade into the Yankees wade into them' We said 'All right general, we will wade into them'

"It was indeed a lesson for all of the younger men to see soldiers like General Butler of South Carolina General Wheeler of Alabama and General Fitzhugh Lee of Virginia again in the blue uniform and fighting under the old flag

"I think if there is one thing which we need to keep perpetually before us and especially gentlemen when there is a political contest on it is the essential unity of our people and the essential solidarity of our people If prosperity comes to us if honor comes to us it will come to all If adversity comes all of us will suffer more or less on account of it In this audience you [illegible] men of business will not get up if the wage worker and the farmer go down If they go down you will go down and when they are going up it means that business will be prosperous too Fundamentally our interests are the same Gentlemen I shall not try to make a speech to you. I have been making several speeches lately (applause) and I thank you greatly for the courtesy you have extended me which I assure you I deeply appreciate"

Governor Roosevelt's Speech

Governor Roosevelt spoke in part as follows

"If any of you are fortunate enough to know whether Mr Bryan if elected will pay the obligations of the nation in gold or silver, I wish you would divulge this knowledge for Mr Bryan won't There is no doubt about where we stand We are for the gold standard and we are so it on the Atlantic seaboard and in the Rocky mountains alike We stand for it everywhere for we are fortunate enough to have issues which do not wear thin in any part of the country

"Now gentlemen some people say that the silver issue is dead Silver cannot be dead when people are uncertain as to how a candidate of one of the two great parties would pay the obligations of the government No issue is dead when you cannot tell whether a creditor or a pensioner whoever he may be is to get 48 cents or 100 cents on the dollar It is dead to the extent that nobody ventures to argue in its behalf But if they paid our debts in 48 cent dollars we would care little as to the precise arguments by which they reached the conclusion that warranted that conduct

Unfulfilled Prophecies

"All I want you to do from a material standpoint is to exhume Mr Bryan's prophecies of four years ago and then for yourselves compare those prophecies with their signal fulfillment"

Governor Roosevelt then enumerated some of the predictions which he declared had been made four years ago by Mr Bryan which the facts today proved erroneous He continued

"Mr Bryan said mortgages would go up and they were the only things that went down Mortgages have diminished in amount by nearly 49 per cent. When these things were pointed out to Mr Bryan the other day and it was shown to him that we were prosperous he answered that it was not the Republican party but Providence that made us so Now I am perfectly willing to admit that there has been a fusion between Providence and the Republican party The Democracy has fused with about everything else but somehow or other it has never managed to connect with Providence"

THE LEADERS HANG BACK

They Do Not Speak as Hopefully of Settlement of Coal Strike.

PICK FLAWS IN THE OFFER

But There Is Strong Sentiment Among Miners that Companies Are Sincere in Their Action.

Wilkesbarre Pa Oct 9—The leaders of the United Mine Workers of this part of the anthracite coal fields do not speak as hopefully tonight of a settlement of the strike by the Scranton convention as they did yesterday

Some of them are afraid that the offer of 10 per cent increase in wages made by the companies may not last long and after the men are back at work for a while and the market is pretty well supplied the operators may reduce wages to the old figure

It is only fair to say however that not all of the mine workers are of this opinion. There is a strong sentiment prevailing that the companies are sincere and that the increase in wages will be permanent

In making the advance in wages the operators did not act in concert but as individuals so that if the convention insists on a definite understanding with the mine owners a week may elapse before the views of the operators can be had.

SIXTEEN ADDRESSES BY MR. BRYAN IN ILLINOIS

Joliet Ill Oct 9 Mr Bryan concluded the last speech of the day here tonight at a few minutes before 11 o clock He had begun at Quincy at 8 o clock and he made sixteen addresses during the day or more than one speech for each hour of the day he occupied The places at which he spoke are

Quincy Camp Point, Golden Carthage Macomb Abingdon Galesburg Yates City Elmwood Chillicothe Peoria Spartland Bureau Lasalle and Joliet At Peoria he spoke twice—The audiences were generally large but those at Peoria, Quincy and Joliet were especially so

Mr Bryan began his speech at Abingdon an important educational center by saying that he had heard much of the place through his law partner Mr Talbot of Nebraska who had influenced him to go to Nebraska.

"If I had not gone to Nebraska" he said "I would not have been in congress when I was and if I had not gone to congress I would not have been nominated for the presidency when I was so you see my fortunes have been influenced to a considerable extent by Abingdon"

He addressed himself especially to the college boys saying that he liked to talk to them because as a class they held high ideals before them and built their lives upon them He recalled the time when in college he entered the [illegible] contest

"My father [illegible]" he said, "and I realized for the first time that I would have to make my own way in the world I began then to study political economy and I then determined to go in life where [illegible]"

He went on to say that he believed all men should form such early standards for life [illegible] every one could be sent out as a missionary and every such missionary would lessen his own labors But, he said it was not the college young men alone but to all young men that he would appeal to form high ideals, and not to young men entirely but to old men as well

Mr Bryan said that [illegible] hold up before the young men [illegible] representing force and conquest rather than the old ideals of peaceful progress

At Vincennes he said he had met a man wearing a McKinley button who had asked for enough money to get a meal

"I gave him the money" said Mr Bryan saying to him at the same time that he was a good example of the prosperity that his party is talking so much about"

A very brief stop was made at Galesburg The original programme did not include a speech at that place as it is regarded to be very strongly Republican but it was decided at the last moment not to pass the town by without any notice Accordingly Mr Bryan spoke for about ten minutes going very hurriedly over the issues of the campaign He had a big audience and received the closest attention

Unscheduled stops were also made at Yates City Elmwood and Chillicothe At Yates City Mr Bryan said there was no more pitiable sight in the world than a man with his nose to the grindstone when he was turning the stone himself This remark was [illegible] to Republicans in connection with the trusts.

When Mr Bryan reached the court house in Peoria, the sides of the [illegible] stand was crowded with a mass of humanity The carriage ride from the depot to the ground was [illegible] packed on each side with shouting and [illegible] admirers. It was impossible for Mr Bryan to reach [illegible] He at once launched into the trusts

The meeting at Joliet was held in the court house grounds and the crowd [illegible] the street in front as well The Bryan train was due here at 9 o clock but did not arrive until after 10. The run from Lasalle a distance of sixty miles was made in sixty-one minutes After the meeting Mr Bryan left for Chicago Tomorrow he will begin his tour of Michigan Benton Harbor being his first stopping place

BRYAN ON THE ISSUE OF FREE SUMMER VACATIONS

Quincy Ill Oct. 9—The special train bearing W J Bryan and party reached Quincy early today before either Mr Bryan or any of the party had arisen They were not however permitted to continue their slumbers long for between the calls of the crowd for Mr Bryan and the beating on the windows the occupants of the train were soon aroused Mr Bryan had only time to get a cup of coffee before he was escorted to a carriage and started on the ride to Washington park, notwithstanding the early hour There was a throng of people at the station included among them being a number of marching clubs who acted as an escort to the speaking grounds Mr Bryan spoke on the general issues [illegible]

"As I pass along the street and as I look into the faces of some of the careworn women who never get a chance to take a summer vacation at some pleasant watering place I wonder how the husbands and sons of these women can find it in their hearts to support the policies which are today amassing great wealth in the hands of a few people with a rapidity never known before in the history of the world I wonder how it is that men who are not interested in getting their hands [illegible] in keeping other people's hands out of their own pockets can support the Republican ticket while today the Republican party denies the principles of equal rights to all and special privileges to none and makes this a government of the syndicates by the syndicates and for the syndicates

"The Republican party is not prepared to defend its policy on any question When you challenge it to defend itself it talks prosperity to the farmer and a full dinner pail to the laboring man and that is all it has to say If the Republican party were to attempt to show in what respect it has brought prosperity to the farmer it would wait. But a Republican said the other day that the Republican party was in partnership with the Almighty The Republican party claims partnership makes all the noise and Jehovah but the trouble is that instead of being the silent partner the Republican party makes all the noise and Jehovah is the silent partner of the con[illegible] From the way the Republicans talk you would imagine that the Republican party was responsible for a large crop when you have a large crop and if the crop fails it was a warning to you never to desert the Republican party"

Mr Bryan again referred to the editorial on the pensions which appeared in the Omaha World Herald with which he was formerly connected He said the editorial referred to was printed long before he was connected with the paper "Yet I doubt not" he added "that every old soldier will receive a letter in which it will be stated that I am the author of the editorial"

"I have already received one" shouted an old soldier in the crowd.

"I am not surprised" replied Mr. Bryan "I know they have misrepresented everything that could be misrepresented Today they have not the least hope of carrying this section unless they have a bigger campaign fund than they have ever had before and they can coerce every voter who can be coerced"

He paid special attention to the farmers saying that even though there had been an advance in the price of some farm products the increase in the price of articles of consumption had been so much greater as to far more than neutralize the advance in farm commodities

Taking up the plea that money from this country is being loaned in Europe Mr Bryan said this could only be true because opportunity for investment were being lessened in the United States.

Mr Bryan asserted that the Republican party had completely changed front upon the question of a large standing army. Formerly that party was wont to boast of its confidence in the volunteer soldiers but this was no longer true It was he declared no excuse for saying we want a strong government in the sense that we need a big army

Mr Bryan closed with a plea against imperialism and speaking of the Puerto Rican bill he said the principle involved in that measure is as dangerous and as damnable as has ever been exercised by a tyrant in the world's history

She Says She Shot Her Husband in Self Defense — Senator Allison Will Speak Oct 30

Denver Bureau,
Colorado Springs Gazette.

Denver Oct 9 — Rev Mr Kililg re is still holding revival meetings at St Paul's M E church South. The crowds are not as large as they were Sunday but as he gave more spiritual interest is king shown. This afternoon he commenced a series of lectures. They will be continued each afternoon during the week. They are on different subjects taken from the Bible. His talk this afternoon was simply the base upon which he intends to found the remaining lectures of the week. The following are a few of today's sayings:

There is a great deal of difference between sanctification and crankification. Sam Jones says ... of the sweet type and bye I think too we ought to think a little more of the nasty now and now. It was given out today that Senator Allison would speak in Denver October 30. The mere announcement that he is going to speak will be enough to fill Coliseum hall.

WATCH COFFEE

And Watch it Carefully

Any brain worker that depends on thought for his success in life uses up daily by brain work a varying amount of the delicate particles of phosphate of potash and albumen of which the brain and nerve centers are composed.

The fine microscopic particles of phosphate of potash are found in quantities in the pores of the skin after the brain has been used ... This must be replaced from food or brain fag and nervous prostration sets in.

This breaking down of the little cells each day from brain work alone is a natural process and the cells can readily be built from the right sort of food if the system is not interfered with by drugs but if an increased amount of cells are broken down by the use of coffee trouble then begins.

Frequently it first shows in dyspepsia lack of power of the bowels to operate properly or palpitation of the heart or some other lack of vitality and healthy vigor. There is but one thing for a sensible man or woman to do, quit coffee absolutely. Hard to do you say. Take up Postum Food Coffee use it regularly have it well made so it tastes good. You will find a well defined unmistakable change in your ...

You have become free from the breaking down force of coffee and on the other hand you are taking a powerful nourishing liquid food which quickly rebuilds the new cells. These are facts—profound facts ... for any one to prove to their own satisfaction by actual use. Postum Food Coffee is made at the famous pure food factories of the Postum Cereal Co Ltd Battle Creek Mich, and is used by brain workers all over the world. Don't call it a "substitute" for coffee. Leave out the coffee proposition altogether. Postum is a liquid food and a true food drink.

councils of the city. All classes of building material are a drag on the Denver market today. One of the unfortunate features in the case is that a number of merchants have ordered heavily of all building materials expecting a large fall trade and now the goods are practically dead stock. Another thing to be deplored is the fact there are actually not enough houses in Denver to shelter all the families. The Pullman shops brought to this city hundreds of families who are now existing in one room simply because there are no vacant houses for them.

The contest comes off at the opera house Thursday night. This will certainly be the best contest ever pulled off in this county. Turner is well known all over fistic circles on account of his many game battles. Palmer has fought some of the best featherweights in San Francisco and has many supporters in and around Florence who think his chances are good. If Palmer should win he goes to the front at a bound and may safely dispute Young Corbett's claim to the 121 pound championship of the state. Mahoney is backing Turner and it is safe to predict that it will tax the seating capacity of the opera house to hold the crowd that will witness the fight.

School Board Had a Busy Session

A committee of the citizens from Hillside met with the school board last evening at its regular monthly meeting and after discussing their grievances for a few minutes they were convinced that the members of the board have been doing all in their power to commence the erection of the proposed new school building, they returned to their homes perfectly satisfied.

When the meeting was called to order all the members of the board were present with the exception of Rev Mr Ormes. After the minutes of the last meeting were read Superintendent Dietrich made his first monthly report. It showed a total enrollment of 3 872 in the schools of the city being an increase of 411 over that of last year. The enrollment in the high school shows an increase of seventy eight over that of last year. The number of teachers employed this year is ninety-three.

The committee from Hillside was then invited to present its petition to the board. Mr J A Orr acted as spokesman and asked the board for information in regard to what action had been taken toward commencing the erection of the proposed new Hillside school building. The president of the board and other members of the board offered explanations in which they stated that every effort had been made to sell the bonds which were voted last spring and that buyers were being solicited. The committee was also informed that one firm had promised to take the bonds but finally declined. The members of the committee soon came to the conclusion that the board had done its duty in regard to disposing of the bonds and after thanking the members retired. The old De Norte building will not be moved to Hillside.

The building committee was instructed to proceed with the construction of steel ceilings in the halls and upper rooms in the new Steele building.

The finance committee presented a detailed report of the financial condition of the district. The assessed valuation of the property of the district is $5 438 000 as compared with over $12 000 000 last year this because of the assessment on a third instead of a half valuation. On account of the decrease the board found it necessary to make an increase of one mill in the school levy making a total levy of eleven mills for this year. This is four mills less than the levies made previous to last year. The report showed that the financial condition of the district is much better than it has been for several years.

The teacher's committee recommended the election of Miss Lida Hart of Pennsylvania to a position in the ... schools. She was elected to fill the position of a teacher of the first grade at the Lillier school.

The board made an appropriation of $1 000 for the libraries of the various schools. The money is to be expended in purchasing books for the school libraries. Miss Lillian Johnson was elected to the position of assistant in the superintendent and secretary's offices and assistant high school librarian. The present corps of janitors was re-elected to fill their respective positions. The matter of electing a janitor for the new Steele building was deferred until the next meeting.

The Curing of Consumption

Is an accomplished fact. Many residents of this city and surrounding community bear witness that it is. Below is printed the voluntary testimonial of an Illinois lady who had tried the climate with only temporary benefit, as is usually the case, and was afterward thoroughly cured by the Shepard treatment. Read what she says

TESTIMONIAL.

For quite a number of years I was troubled with weak lungs, gradually became weaker and finally ran into consumption.

I then had an examination. The doctor reported a sore spot in either lung. After doctoring for some time he advised a change of climate so I went to New Mexico for a number of months coming home feeling very much better but after being home for a year was feeling as poorly as ever. This time I took the Shepard treatment and I feel so pleased with it I would like every one else who has lung trouble to take this treatment. It is over a year since I began to take the treatment and I feel like a different person. Only a few months elapsed before I felt a decided improvement. Now it is the exception when I feel my lungs while before it was the exception when they were not paining me. Change of climate is allright if one continues living in that climate but on returning to a damp climate the trouble will return while with this treatment when the lungs are healed as this treatment will surely do for them if the directions are closely followed it is a cure for all time and any climate if taken in time. If any one wishes to consult me personally in regard to my cure I will be pleased to have them do so as I sympathize with all those who have lung trouble. Yours sincerely MARY E ANGELL

CAMPAIGN IN EL PASO COUNTY

Republicans Have Arranged the Most Attractive Series of Meetings Ever Planned for This County.

There are a good many qualifications for voters in Colorado; not so many as there are in some states, because in Colorado a voter is not necessarily a man; but there is one qualification that is essential above all others on election day and if the voter has not complied with this one all his other qualifications are worthless.

It is this:

He or she as the case may be MUST BE REGISTERED.

IF YOU ARE NOT REGISTERED YOU WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO VOTE.

The registration books are now open at the office of the county clerk in the court house on Kiowa street and voters must attend to the registration.

The best time to go is in the morning before 11 o'clock. The registration is going to be more and more lively from now on and the crowds come after 11 o'clock in the morning. If you go before that hour you will probably find your precinct book available. If you wait until afternoon you may find half a dozen people waiting for your precinct book and you may have to wait. If you do find your precinct book busy don't blame the registry clerk. A thousand of them couldn't hurry it a bit.

IF YOU GO TODAY AND GO EARLY YOU WILL NOT HAVE ANY TROUBLE AND YOU WILL NOT HAVE IT TO THINK ABOUT LATER.

If you are expecting to vote you must be registered.

The Republican county central committee has completed a schedule of meetings to take place in outlying towns of El Paso county that promise the best campaign for the outside precincts that they have ever had. The Republican party has always taken care to have the country precincts well represented in all political matters and the country precincts always come in for a place on the ticket when there is a ticket to be put in the field.

In the present campaign there is but one county office to be cared for and that office, the county commissionership, would have been given to a man from the country had not city and country together agreed that it was better to name for the place Mr. W. H. Fairall, who has been a resident of Colorado Springs for 12 years, and for the last two years the city's street commissioner. His acknowledged success as a road care-taker commends him specially to the country people who feel that they have been neglected in this matter.

Three of the speakers for these county meetings who will be especially interesting to the people are Messrs. J. V. Sheafor, candidate for district attorney; C. E. Brady, candidate for district judge, and Hon. Ira Harris, who is candidate for district judge to succeed himself. Mr. Brady is best acquainted in Teller county and has a great many acquaintances in Colorado Springs and a good many in Douglas county. His strength of character and ability as a lawyer are unquestioned either by his political friends or opponents and there is no doubt but he needs only the acquaintance of the people of eastern El Paso county to make him one of the most popular man who ever went before the people of the district for any office.

He is not a politician or ordinary officeseeker. He will not "run for office." He will make a thoroughly competent and creditable judge if elected, however, and the people of the county appreciate this fact and will vote accordingly.

Mr. Sheafor, by reason of his wide experience in the legal profession, has become very well acquainted and he will ... his ... for the district attorneyship.

Judge Harris, who has occupied the district bench for the last six years and is being presented by the Republican party for re-election, is one of the strongest jurists in the state, a fact recognized by the legal fraternity regardless of party. Judge Harris is not a man who will urge people to vote for him for political reasons or for any other. He stands upon his record on the bench and his sense of the dignity of the calling, which is involved in his connection with the campaign will undoubtedly re-elect him by a handsome majority. His past six years have made him acquainted with most of the people of the district and his matchless qualifications for the position need no comment.

The eastern El Paso county campaign will begin on Monday next with a meeting at Palmer Lake and within the ten days thereafter most of the large towns in the county will be visited. A large tent that will hold 1,000 people has been secured by the Republican committee, and it is the purpose to hold four big meetings in the county between now and election. There will be big rallies at Monument, Eastonville and Fountain. Ample announcement of these big meetings will be made to allow the people of near-by towns to attend.

The programme of meetings and the speakers for the same as now arranged, these meetings being independent of the tent rallies that will come later, is as follows:

Palmer Lake, Monday, Oct. 15—J. V. Sheafor, J. B. Stephen, W. L. Boatright.

Fountain, Tuesday, Oct. 16—I. J. Woodworth, Hon. W. S. Morris, J. B. Stephen.

Falcon, Wednesday, Oct. 17—Hon. W. S. Morris, John B. Stephen, John A. Bowers.

Eastonville, Thursday, Oct. 18—Hon. W. S. Morris, I. J. Woodworth, J. W. Sheafor.

Peyton, Friday, Oct. 19—J. A. Orr, J. V. Sheafor, John A. Bowers.

Calhan, Saturday, Oct. 20—Hon. C. E. Brady, Hon. Ira Harris, John B. Stephen, C. W. Dolph.

Monument, Monday, Oct. 22—J. R. Robinson, J. W. Sheafor, J. B. Stephen.

Burbur Schoolhouse, Tuesday, Oct. 23—C. W. Dolph, W. L. Boatright, Wallace Miller.

State Senator Oscar Reuter and Major Glidden, the latter of Michigan, are announced to speak at a Bryan meeting to be held tonight at the court house. Major Glidden is a national Democratic committee campaign speaker and is expected to tell some interesting things in an interesting way.

At Colorado City tonight James B. Orman, D. C. Coates and W. P. Seeds are anounced as speakers. The meeting will be held in the W. C. T. U. hall.

J. ELLEN FOSTER WILL SPEAK HERE TOMORROW

The Republican meeting to be held at the Temple Theater on Thursday evening will be one of the very best of the entire campaign.

The principal attraction Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, has achieved a national reputation as a most forceful, magnetic speaker. Consequently, a very widespread interest has been created wherever her name is anounced. Every one who has ever heard Mrs. Foster is sure to be on hand Thursday evening, and all others will not let the present oportunity pass by, so, a packed house is assured.

Furthermore, the Republican women workers are perfecting arrangements for a public reception to be tendered Mrs. Foster in their headquarters directly after the meeting, then all can meet Mrs. Foster personally, which will be a great privilege.

Mrs. C. A. Eldridge, chairman of the Republican Women Workers, visited Fountain on Monday and met the women there. She extended a general invitation to the people to be present and quite a delegation will come.

Yesterday afternoon the women's headquarters were filled with willing workers who are supplementing in most effectual manner the labors of the general committee. Hereafter, daily, the headquarters at the theater will be open from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. and anyone, women, particularly, will be given every attention and all information desired.

BARLOW'S BIG MINSTRELS.

The great Barlow minstrels, composed of ... white artists, will be the attraction at the opera house on next Tuesday evening. This company requires no introduction to the theater-going public of this city. It stands today the oldest minstrel aggregation on the road, this being its sixteenth consecutive season under the old title. As time marches on and everything improves, so it has been with this company, each year bringing new and up to date songs, dances and marches. The first part is a revelation in minstrelsy, representing a bower of beauty in which are seated the whole strength of the company attired in rich silks and satins. Frank E. McNish, Lew Baldwin, Harry Boyd, Charles Carimell, Frank Horton. The specialties include the Toledo Bros. in a European novelty entitled "The Crocodile and the Lizard." Bonelli brothers, triple barrel jumpers; the Harmonic quartette; Coburn and Baldwin, musical artists, a big song and dance at the "Frolics of the South."

"A SOUTHERN GENTLEMAN."

Mr. Clay Clements and an excellent company will present his new play, "A Southern Gentleman," at the opera house Saturday evening. An exchange says: Gen. Joseph Carroll of South Carolina is not only the hero of Mr. Clement's "A Southern Gentleman," a dainty, idyllic romance, but he is head and front, the central figure, the life, the motive, the color and the character of the play. His surroundings are fittingly and appropriate, but after all, they are but the setting of the jewel, a condition that is aptly suggested in the title of the play. Joseph Carroll is distinguished no less for his gentleness than for his bravery. His splendid qualities are so ingrained in his nature as innate qualities that he cannot help displaying them, this being illustrated in the care he takes to avoid wounding the feelings of his servant. While his heart is fairly consumed by a great quenchless love, he would let it break rather than bring pain or sorrow to the woman he loves. In the portrayal of this beautiful character Mr. Clement proves himself a master of his profession. The graceful repose of manner and the unruffled courtesy with which he meets his deadly enemy, whom he heartily despises, were characteristic of the cool-headed, stout-hearted, old school gentleman, who would never for an instant hesitate between the alternatives of death and dishonor.

Mr. Clement surrounds his hero with bright and harmonious settings. Miss Arzella Thompson, the sweetheart of the hero, and the heroine of the play, is a strongly womanly character, tender, loyal and loving. She is admirably presented by Mrs. Clay Clement. Mr. Stockwell as Judge Fingliearty shared the honors, his work was an artistic bit of character acting.

NOT THE ONLY ONE.

There are Hundreds of Colorado Springs People Similarly Situated.

Can there be any stronger proof offered than the evidence of Colorado Springs residents? After you have read the following quietly answer the question.

Mr. J. J. McCarty of 13 South Corona street, foreman of the Gazette, says: "For five or six years I was annoyed with attacks of backache, accompanied by slight urinary trouble. I took more than one medicine said to be a sure cure for kidney complaint, and like a great many others in Colorado Springs, I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Smith-Wilson Drug Co.'s store, expecting the results from their treatment to be as unsatisfactory as those from other preparations I had taken in the past. The benefit received justifies me in saying that anyone suffering from kidney complaint or backache will find in this preparation something which acts differently and more effectively than anything heretofore tried."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's—and take no substitute.

WILL BANQUET TRUSTEES—The members of the local Typographical Union No. 82 have completed arrangements for a banquet to be given the visiting trustees of the Printers' Home. The banquet will be given in the Club House Cafe tomorrow night.

A HOT OLD TIME—The farce, "A Hot Old Time," in which the Rays made a fortune and then retired, came to the opera house last evening. It is a lively piece of the most extravagant comedy, hardly worthy of serious criticism. It has been given here a number of times, but last evening had a very small audience. John W. Jess as Larry Mooney was the best part of the show.

CARRYING COLORADO FOR SILVER.

MR. TOWNE thinks that Colorado ought to be carried for silver again.

Of course he does.

So does Governor Thomas and Thomas M. Patterson and every candidate on the Democratic state ticket and every fusion aspirant for United States senatorship or clerk in the next general assembly.

But what do they mean by "carrying Colorado for silver?"

They mean carrying it for Democracy.

Then why do they not say so?

Because silver is respectable, and Democracy is not.

What would be the result of carrying Colorado for Democracy?

It would give Democrats under various party names control of the public offices and appointments.

It would give the Democratic candidates for president and vice president four electoral votes.

It would do all we could do towards the encouragement of Aguinaldo and the paralysis of Pacific trade.

It would record our opposition to the doctrines of expansion, it would favor surrender to insurgents in arms against the flag, it would mark our disapproval of the Republican policy of government aid to irrigation in the west.

It would approve and continue the evils of fusion in state affairs.

BUT IT WOULD NOT IN ANY MATERIAL WAY HELP SILVER ONE LITTLE BIT.

ON THE CONTRARY BY UPSETTING BUSINESS, DESTROYING PROSPERITY AND CLOSING THE PACIFIC DEMAND IT WOULD AGAIN DEPRESS THE PRICE OF SILVER THAT IS NOW ADVANCING AS A RESULT OF REPUBLICAN POLICIES.

Some of silver's best and truest friends are in the Republican party supporting its policies and candidates. Of the men who followed Teller out of the St. Louis convention, not one now believes that helping Democracy is helping silver.

The Democratic national convention itself declared the silver issue to be a subordinate one, and the vote in the committee indicated that a congress composed all of Democrats would not pass a free silver bill.

Mr. Towne's talk of carrying Colorado for silver will not help the Democracy in this state.

It only serves to emphasize the fact that the Democracy only hopes to win through misrepresentation and deceit.

The Spaniards in their fights with the Moors once brought a dead body out of the tomb, set it on horseback and followed it to a victory that their incompetent live leaders could not secure.

That is what Mr. Towne would like to do with silver.

But the people of Colorado are not to be deceived by such tricks.

The disrepute of Democracy and of fusion is not to be concealed by the name of silver, no matter how anxious the Democrats and their allies are that it should be done.

LOCAL MODIFICATIONS OF PARAMOUNT ISSUES.

PROSPERITY, good government and the honor of the flag are paramount issues all over the country at all times.

But local conditions modify paramount issues according to circumstances.

In one part of the country prosperity depends upon the maintenance of the protective tariff, because the people there are engaged in manufacture in competition with foreign mills.

In another part prosperity comes through a good market and fair prices for agricultural products.

In another part the maintenance of steady business conditions is of prime importance and the community sees prosperity in bank statements and books of account.

But in Colorado prosperity depends on development. Our main business is not manufacturing, nor agriculture, nor store keeping, though we are interested in all these things.

Our chief business just at present is in building up the state. We are long on natural resources and raw material. We are short on capital, population, and the myriad forms of accumulated wealth that form the equipment and stock in trade of modern civilization.

Our business is expansion, and in order to expand rapidly and successfully we need two things: the opening of suitable markets for our surplus products as fast as they are produced, and the utilization of our resources to the fullest capacity.

That is Colorado's paramount issue, and it is because the Republican party, and none other, is in sympathy and harmony with our purpose and interest in these things that the party should receive our support.

What absolute folly it is, that Colorado, of all the states of the union should declare for the party that proposes to stop expansion and to paralyze our Pacific trade, and against the party that is on record for national aid to irrigation!

Nothing but the most complete misapprehension of the political situation as it exists today could account for such a result.

The Democrats would have no objection to the subjugation of the Philippines if they could get a dozen electoral votes thereby.

AGUINALDO'S OPPORTUNITY.

AGUINALDO'S opportunity to organize resistance to the United States and to establish his personal domination over the Tagals and Tagalog supremacy over the Philippines was not due to his own bravery nor to the recognition of his leadership by the Americans. It resulted from the signing of the protocol or preliminary arrangement of peace between Spain and the United States. By this arrangement the United States could not, under the laws of nations, proceed to the establishment of a provisional form of government outside of the territory actually occupied by its armies at the time the protocol was signed, while Spain, whose power had been broken by the United States, had no incentive to attempt to repress native outbreaks until the future of the islands was determined by the treaty of peace.

The protocol of peace was agreed to on August 12, while the treaty of peace was signed December 10, sent to the senate January 4, and ratified by the senate February 6.

From August to February Aguinaldo was free to organize his government and to prepare for armed resistance to the authority either of Spain or of the United States.

An illustration of the way in which Aguinaldo established his government is to be found on page 109 of the report of the Philippines commission, the testimony being that of Adolph von Bosch, a Belgian who was located at Dilupaon, in the province of Ambos Camarines in southern Luzon. The people there are Vicols. General Lucban, one of Aguinaldo's lieutenants, established the Tagalog government there September 22, 1898. It was a military government. They did not collect any taxes; they did not make any laws; they extorted money from the Spaniards and stole it from the wealthy Vicols. Lucban took away from $100,000 to $150,000. It is claimed with some basis of truth that in certain localities the government was stable and beneficent, but it is unquestionable that in other cases it was extremely oppressive and tyrannical and it was in general autocratic and despotic.

It was the inter-regnum between the signing of the protocol and the ratification of the peace treaty that gave Aguinaldo and the other leaders of the Tagals the opportunity to attempt to seize the control of the islands. Previous to that time, there had been no movement in favor of independence, and there was none until it was worked up by Aguinaldo and his associates in furtherance of their selfish plans. The basis of opposition to the Americans was the knowledge that the islands would not be subjugated to Tagalog control, and this opposition after months of careful preparation culminated in the outbreak of February 5, 1899, which was intended to influence the defeat of the treaty of peace with Spain in the American senate.

If the United States had been able to proceed with the military occupation of the islands without interruption, or if the Spanish power had not been paralyzed by the American operations at Manila and elsewhere, the insurrection would never have reached its former proportions.

To speak of Aguinaldo's effort as a national movement in favor of independence, or as a fight for liberty, or to ascribe its origin to anything the Americans did or left undone, is to show oneself ignorant of well known facts.

At the present time, and for every time since Dewey's ships sank the Spanish fleet in Manila bay, the only hope of freedom, self-government and progress in civilization for the people of the Philippines is and has been through the establishment and maintenance of American sovereignty in the islands.

INCOMPETENT TO RULE.

THE Democratic party admits its inability to conduct the national affairs and to look after the interests of the nation.

In the national expansion of a growing nation it sees danger and ultimate ruin.

In the development of our trade interests it beholds tyranny and oppression.

It declares that this country cannot play the part of a great nation in the advancement of civilization throughout the world, because we are insincere, weak and incapable of maintaining our own liberties.

In our home affairs it declares that the danger of modern methods of business is greater than their advantages.

It declares that the American people are even now struggling in the grasp of a monster, of whose presence no visible genuine evidence exists, and that a continuance of the policy that has hitherto brought only success and prosperity will land us in the depths of calamity, despair and oppression.

It declares that this country must not maintain an army sufficient to protect us from foreign attack and to preserve peace and good order at home, because the American people is in danger of being subjugated by that very small fraction of itself which is in uniform.

What folly!

This is a nation, competent to perform a nation's duties at home and abroad.

This is a free and liberty-loving people, secure in its liberties so long as the spirit of freedom burns in the hearts of its people, without regard to what party name controls the government.

The party that is to rule the American people and to direct the destinies of the nation must be a party with profound faith in America and Americans, such a faith as was characteristic of Abraham Lincoln, who knew no higher rule of leadership than to ascertain and to follow the will of the people, such a faith as is characteristic of William McKinley, who, never shirking duty or responsibility that belongs to him, gives highest proof of his ability as a leader in his unfailing belief that the wisdom of the people is greater than the wisdom of any one man.

The Democratic party, the party of cowardice, of pessimism, of weakness, of disorganization, the party of class hatreds and sectional enmities, is not in accordance with the American spirit.

By its own confession it is unfit to rule this nation; it is unworthy of success.

A CONFESSION OF DEFEAT.

THE sort of speeches that Mr. Bryan made yesterday will not help his candidacy. They will make the people who have resolved to vote for him a little more bitter in their feelings towards other Americans, but they will not convince or persuade anyone.

On the other hand they can hardly fail to drive from Mr. Bryan's support some of those who had believed that opposition to the administration policy in the Philippines was the keynote of the present campaign.

When Mr. Bryan begins to talk about the fact that some persons have summer vacations while others do not, as a reason for voting the Democratic ticket, and when he begins to declare that the only hope of Republican success is in a corruption fund furnished by the trusts, he confesses his own defeat and his words are simply the embittered utterances of disappointment.

Mr. Bryan will not advance his prospects by further slanders of the American people. This election is not going to be bought. If Mr. Bryan should win he would win through intimidation, fraud and disfranchisement as practiced in ten southern states. If he is beaten he will be beaten because the American people is too intelligent, too patriotic, too confident in its own character and too hopeful of its future to be misled and deceived by the Democratic web of contradictions, falsehoods and deceits.

FROM THE PRESS OF THE NATION

Success of a Manly Protest.

(Philadelphia Times.)

A word of honorable mention and congratulation is due to the gold miners of Victor, Colo., because they had been stealing ore from the mine, and the miners were ordered to strip and pass naked from one dressing room to another in entering and leaving the mine. Naturally enough, self-respecting men resented that indignity and protested against it. They have won, and the prediction may be ventured that there will be less ore-stealing now than there was before. Just so far as men are put on their honor a number of them will respond to this appeal who are callous to other arguments.

There is really no good reason for humiliating a fellow man because he is obliged to work with his hands for his living, and there are very good reasons against it. It is high time that the spirit of snobbery and class consciousness be banished from the American employer's sense of relationship to his employes. Let him remember that they are not imported animals from some other sphere, but men like himself, with objections very like his own to doing things that he would not like to have to do.

The employer who insults his labor writes himself down as a cad of the first water, and the time is coming when just under him will be written the name of the employe who refuses to be as courteous and reasonable with the laborer who is grimy with the dust of his service as with the man who sits in the next chair at directors' meeting.

Due Credit to Hobson.

(Philadelphia North American.)

Lieut Hobson has given the lie to his detractors in a most conclusive way. When he said at Vancouver that the Spaniards had sunk their ships in Manila bay by opening the seacocks he told the plain facts as seen with the eyes of a naval constructor. He did not say that the shell fire of the American fleet was not accurate and effective, and he did nothing to belittle Admiral Dewey's achievement by saying that the Spanish ships were not sunk by direct fire. There was no question about the extent of Dewey's victory or the destruction of the enemy's vessels. He has asked by the interviewers about the condition of the sunken ships and he told briefly what he had found by actual observation.

Hobson came out of the war with a record for gallantry that was not equaled by any other officer in the navy. It was not his fault that the wreck of the Merrimac did not block the entrance to Santiago harbor, and the failure of the undertaking under his command did not in any way detract from his daring purpose or his personal heroism. Because an excitable people wanted an idol, he was thrust into a prominence that he would gladly have escaped. He could not be blamed because a lot of women made fools of themselves. For that matter it has been proved that the kissing stories published at the time were either wholly false or grossly exaggerated.

Hobson has borne himself modestly under most trying circumstances. He has never sought notoriety, but has been the prey of a notoriety-loving public. It was his misfortune that so much attention was lavished upon him by the fickle people, for it drew the envy of smaller men.

It is the old case of wild praise turning to wild ridicule. Hobson is not the only sufferer. But the other day some one complained in the papers because Dewey, the immortal hero of a year ago, had not cut the grass in front of his gift house.

The Truth as We All Know It.

(Chicago Inter Ocean.)

It is a glib Democratic assumption just now that the workers in all our great industries—the miners who wrest from the earth its treasures, the mechanics who build our homes, span mighty rivers, and pierce mountains, the seamen of peace [illegible] with the ship and locomotive, the artisans whose deft hands fashion the most delicate and powerful machinery and fabricate wares useful and beautiful—in short all the craftsmen whose brain and brawn make civilization—constitute a caste from whose dead level none can rise. It is the common foundation of most Democratic argument nowadays that the splendid army of American industrial workers is composed of incompetent, thriftless, skilless, hopeless creatures, without price, resource or ambition—cringing slaves, half-starved idiots and pauper dependents on the bounty of the rich.

Yet any man with the slightest knowledge of industrial and social conditions in America knows that all this is plain falsehood. Any man seeking the truth has but to talk with any members of Chicago's industrial army—the men on the building scaffolds and at the shops in the factories. He will find these men as competent, as self-respecting, as ambitious as their employers, and more self-reliant and stronger in mind and body than the average heir of wealth. They are not hopeless beggars, dependent upon the favor of a trust for weekly pittances. They do not feel themselves helpless slaves, bound by rules of caste to work forever for hard taskmasters.

The average American workingman knows that he has what the world must have, brain and brawn—and that with these he can carve out his fortune. He does not, as the Bryan editors and orators assume, waste all he gets and then rail against his employer for not giving him more to waste. The soldier in our grand army of industry, as a rule, is thrifty, shrewd, prudent and ambitious. He often owns his home; if not, he is planning to own it. His wife and little ones are not dressed in rags and starved into ghastly skeletons, as pictured by Bryan orcotemists, but are dignified and self-respecting women and bright and attractive children.

The American workingman knows that the overwhelming majority of Americans come into this world with nothing except the powers of brain and body given them by nature. He is not discontented with the common lot of man, unless resolution to rise and to give his children a better start than he had in life may be called discontent. He knows that the vast majority of the wealthy and powerful started where he starts, at the foot of the ladder, and he is confident of his ability to climb as they have climbed.

This is the type of men upon whom the tyrannies seek to place the degrading stamp of immutable caste. Upon these strong fighters in the battle of life the Bryan Democrats coolly place the brand of that inferiority which belongs only to the willfully idle, the incompetent and the dissolute. In every word and sentence of their appeal to the workingmen of America, they wantonly insult the great majority of the American people. That is their style of mind. That is their kind of Americanism.

A Rebuke to Dancers.

Near by to Thurns an old minister denounced from the pulpit and threatened the terrors of the law on all who should appear at a ball to be given within the shadow of his kirk. One elder, primed by his young folks, expostulated, reminding the minister that David danced and that Miriam danced. There was seemingly silent acquiescence. But the following Sunday the old man eloquent in his might, as he banged Bible and pulpit alternately, shouted in stentorian tones, "David did dance, and Miriam did dance, but the Bible nowhere says 'Let there be promiscuous dancing'"—(M. E. Leicester Addis, in the October "New Pippincott."

Home Owning!

Is better than house renting. Enjoy the pleasures of a real home rather than occupy and help pay for the property of another. Call for loaning plans, with easy repayment, of THE ASSURANCE SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION. Borrowing to build may be the best thing you can do.

What Is the Use

To pay out thousands of dollars in a few years in rents for a house that perhaps does not suit you? Do you ever sit down when you have a quiet hour and THINK about these things? Suppose you are paying $30 per month for rent. That money will never revert to you again. IT IS GONE. Suppose you had a home and pay $30 per month on it. Even suppose that $25 of that goes for interest—which is not likely. Your $30 is not all gone but $25 of it is still yours. Now lay this paper down, but don't be foolish enough to forget what we have said. If what we have endeavored to say in this limited space is not clear to you, come in and see us and let us tell you more about it.

Something New in Co-Operation

The Carpenters and Builders Co-Operative association is the name of an organization which has been in existence in this city since the first of May but ... which little has been given out. It is an organization of laboring men of the city who have associated themselves after the manner of the co-operative societies of England only not yet on such a large scale

The association now has about forty members ... in all the building trades. The object of the organization is to furnish employment for its members. It is different from a union in that the men are graded and the scale of wages is fixed by the standard of a man's capabilities. The association has several contracting carpenters in its ranks and it will enter into contracting for the purpose of securing as much work for its members as possible. So far as possible members of the association will be hired on the jobs but if necessary the association will go outside of its membership to secure men making no distinctions as to union principles. The leaders of the new movement state that there is no intention to fight or antagonize the unions of the city but that their sole purpose is to furnish employment to all men. In conversation with a Gazette representative yesterday, one of the leaders said

"I am not a first class carpenter. Now I might join the Carpenters union and I would have to demand $3 a day. Not being a first class carpenter I could not hold a job at those wages and the consequence would be that I would rather go from one job to another and finally I would be nothing but a ... In our society I can get work according to my ability and I will draw a wage in proportion to the work I do."

The association will ... on in ... hour day and will affiliate with unions in principles in all other respects except in the wage question

It is the plan of the organization to ultimately establish a lumber yard here and also a planing mill. Later a co-operative general mercantile store may be added. The society now has a building at the corner of Kiowa and Spruce streets on the west side which will be its carpenter and plumbing shop. A brick yard may also be added later. The association now has over $1,000 worth of plumbing fixtures ready to be put into its building.

In cases where the association takes contracts for buildings the men employed will receive their regular wages and the contractor will receive contractor's wages. All profits will be apportioned among the men employed according to the wages they draw and will be turned into the general treasury of the association to the credit of each man employed. This money will be used in purchasing ground materials etc and each member will be a stockholder in the association according to the amount of money turned in for him.

The officers of the association are N J Kirkpatrick president H Hobbs treasurer S C Rogers secretary. The management of the affairs of the association is in the hands of an executive committee composed of Will De Tolliver chairman and William J Hurt. Membership in the society is open to any and all laboring men and the initiation fee is $. This money is to be used for the current expenses of the society such as fuel light and hall rent

Last night the members of the association held a social session in their building at the corner of Spruce and Kiowa streets. The families of the men were present and a very pleasant time was spent. Music and refreshments enlivened the ... hours.

Athletic Association Raised Some Money

An enthusiastic meeting was held yesterday afternoon in the high school auditorium. The meeting was called for the purpose of raising money with which to carry on the games which are to be played during the coming football season and it was a great success in that way. The meeting was well attended and proved the most enthusiastic of the year. The total amount subscribed during the afternoon was $14.70 and this will probably be increased to $10 or more before the work of raising funds is finished.

The contributions were made by members of the faculty and the students and were quite liberal in every instance. The subscriptions made by the students were given willingly and this action was a most rate demonstration of the interest taken in athletics. The members of the ... and Ira debating society made contributions of $1 and $10 respectively.

The athletic association is now prepared to uphold the reputation of the school in athletics and the members are greatly encouraged as a result of the meeting yesterday afternoon. The members of the football team have also taken fresh courage and will continue their work of training with renewed vigor. They will be provided with all necessary supplies and will be in better shape to appear in the games which have been scheduled.

The first game of the season will be played next Saturday afternoon at Washburn field where the team will line up against the North Denver high school team. The boys are looking forward to the event with considerable interest and their hopes of success are increasing with each practice.

Clerk Notified of the City's Assessment

City Clerk Harris was notified yesterday by County Assessor Lavden that the approximate valuation of the city this year is $9,001,10. This sum is a somewhat smaller than that of last year but it is due to the different basis of assessment. Last year the property of the city was assessed on a basis of one-half of the actual valuation and this year the assessment was made on a basis of one third of the valuation.

Last year the actual valuation of the property in the city was placed at $21,505,000, but this year the assessor has fixed the valuation at $24,004,30 showing an increase of $2,499,233. The assessed valuation of the property last year was $10,752,650 but it was made on a basis of one-half instead of one third. Although the actual valuation is larger this year the assessed valuation is much less than that of last year.

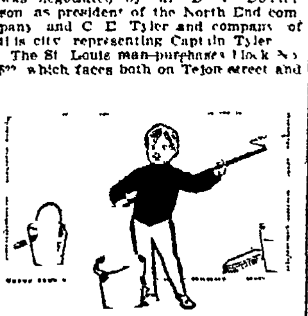

Block in North End Sold for $20,000

Quite an important real estate deal has been put through in the city in the past two or three days. Captain C H Tyler, a St Louis real estate specialist, has purchased a block in the North End addition and proposes to begin the erection of a number of houses. The deal was negotiated by Mr D A Donaldson as president of the North End company and C E Tyler and company of this city representing Captain Tyler.

The St Louis man purchases block No ... which faces both on Tejon street and Nevada avenue near the sanitarium. There are sixty-6 fifty feet lots in the block and the price paid is $20,000. There is a clause in the deeds to the North End property requiring that lots shall be improved only with houses costing not less than $2,000. In purchasing the property Captain Tyler agrees that he will at once begin the erection of not less than three houses. It is said that he will improve all the lots as rapidly as possible.

Mr Donaldson says that the company has also given Captain Tyler a verbal option on another block of their land. It is a satisfactory fact that Captain Tyler has been attracted to this city for investment. He has been here several months looking around. He made considerable money in real estate in St Louis and is a shrewd investor.

County Commissioners Exhibited New Building

About fifty people enjoyed the hospitality of the county commissioners ... the members of the new ... yesterday afternoon and visited the new hospital at the county farm. They enjoyed a pleasant two hours outing. Among those who went over were Mr L R Ehrich President Slocum of the college Mr F B Hill Mrs A C Bray and Dr Lattill of the county board of visitors Rev W H Fish Thomas Hughes Father Bender, Rev B F Carrington of the Associated Charities Rev Mr Finkbiner and others who are interested in charitable and reform work

The party left the city at 2 o'clock and was welcomed at the hospital by Commissioners Sinton Doran and Greenway who took pleasure in showing their guests about. After every one had inspected the grounds and buildings the visitors were invited to the dining room where a nice luncheon of hot coffee sandwiches pie and fruit had been prepared by Mrs Buck

Everyone seemed pleased with the handsome new buildings. The county owns a tract of about 300 acres in the Bear creek valley all under cultivation. They have Mr and Mrs J P Buck as superintendent and matron of the farm and hospital. Mr Buck states that the past summer he has cut 125 tons of hay on the land raised all the vegetables the people have needed and also plenty of corn for feeding this winter

On the land the commissioners have just completed the new hospital building. This is three stories high and of pressed brick. The main building is 35x70 feet. In addition there is a wing to be used as a hospital ward 30x61 feet. The new building contains twenty five rooms large light and airy. The finish is of the best and everything is done to make it ... sanitary

On the first floor are the living rooms of the superintendent with private dining room and the reception rooms kitchens and dining rooms of the inmates. The hospital ward is a fine big room light and airy. It is heated and ventilated by the ... system to prevent draughts. Inspector Lorey superintended this work. The upper rooms are bed chambers for the inmates. On the second floor is a room with cement floors and strong doors intended for insane patients who become violent

The building is heated by steam and the boiler house which is separate is a model of neatness. On the first floor is the laundry with stationary wash tubs. The thirty horse power boiler is in the basement. The arrangements for caring for the coal and ashes are admirable. The buildings complete have cost about $2,000. The plans were drawn by A J Smith the architect of the court house and the work has been done by the day under the careful supervision of Joseph Dyer

The people who visited the county house yesterday came away quite pleased with the feeling that everything is being done to care properly for the unfortunates. There are about eighteen inmates on the farm just now and Mr and Mrs Buck have been able to care for them very nicely in tents during the summer

In this western country the inmates at the county house are usually sick people. There are few of the old people. Illness and others such as easterners often have to care for. Here it is usually a temporary matter and the commissioners have reason to believe that they have provided for many years to come

An Alleged Trooper Bilked His Friends

The facts have just leaked out about a smooth young man who recently imposed upon several of the best people of the city and who after securing a good suit of clothes forging a check and committing one or two smaller depredations skipped out

The young man ... said to be H G Atkinson and he claimed to have been a bugler with Troop A Fifth cavalry. He came to this city early in the summer and for some time worked at Broadmoor casino. When the casino closed a gentleman secured him a position at Mueth's candy store. In the meantime he won his way into the good graces of a number of prominent people of the city. It seems he had letters from good people in the east and he presented these and was received at their full face value. The gentlemen to whom he presented the letters supposed that he was down on his luck and were very willing to help him. He was invited to the homes of the gentlemen referred to and everything possible was done to make things pleasant for him

Atkinson appeared to be very hard up and his clothes were in bad condition. One of the leading young men of the city was introduced to him and finding him in such hard luck consented to go with him to a clothing store and stand responsible for a suit of clothes. Atkinson agreeing to pay so much a week on the bill

In the meantime Messrs Mueth and Davis had become suspicious of the young fellow because of his style of conversation with the other men in the store. It appears that he told one of the boys working in the store that it would be an easy thing to break into the store and explained the weak spots in the building to him. His talk with the other men was very coarse and vulgar and after he had worked a week and a half Mr Davis decided to let him go. This was ... before Roosevelt came to town

It appears that he had got acquainted with some of the college boys who had been with the volunteers in the Philippines and tried to borrow a uniform from them so that he could go up to Denver and meet Roosevelt saying that he knew the colonel. He did not succeed however

Some time between the Saturday before Roosevelt's arrival and the day of his arrival Atkinson got in his master stroke. He had been the guest of a certain prominent attorney of the city and had at some time gotten hold of that gentleman's signature and he proceeded to reproduce it on a check for $28. He took the check to the clothing house at which he had bought the clothes and asked one of the gentlemen there to go with him to the Exchange National bank and identify him. This was done and the bank honored the check. The forgery was not discovered until the first of the month when the lawyer received his checks from the bank and in the meantime Atkinson had ... the streets on the morning of Roosevelt's visit here and then ... on a military uniform and stated that he was going on with the party

After his departure his many friends found that they had run up against another case of misplaced confidence. So far as learned nothing has been done toward apprehending the smooth young fellow and the police have not been informed of his work. Since his departure it has developed that a well known North end clergyman of the city who took an interest in his case secured him a room in a boarding house in which several of the college boys were living and that while one of the boys was taking a bath one day some money was taken from his clothes. It was believed at the time that Atkinson was the guilty man but it could not be proved against him and the matter was dropped

As a result of their good intentions one gentleman has to pay for a suit of clothes from which he has had no service. The clothing man has to stand good for the check amounting to $28 and several people are nursing their wounded pride after having been so completely taken in.

MINERS ATTACH PROPERTY FOR PAY

An attachment suit has been started against the National Gold Mining company by the miners who worked for Lessee H A Finnerty. The attachment is for $1 000 and was levied in Cripple Creek yesterday.

The property against which the attachment has been levied is located on Gold hill. It has been operated for some time by Lessee Finnerty but about a month ago the lease was cancelled and the property was closed down. The miners did not get their pay and after deliberating upon what steps they should take to protect themselves they at last decided to attach the property of the company and did so yesterday.

"Blood tells" But we rarely recognize the fact except in times of stress and strain. A horse which looks like a scrub may beat another horse which seems the ideal of a racer just by that one quality of good blood. Similarly men who seem in the pink of condition drop down under the racing strain of business. Why? Blood tells. Men reckoned perfectly healthy look out for ... they make a run for the train and collapse. "Heart failure" they call it. Blood failure would be often the better name.

Take care of the blood and the body will take care of itself. It is the blood which builds the body. The blood indeed is the body. A sound body must be based on sound blood.

It is one of the peculiar properties of Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery that it eliminates from the blood the effete and poisonous matter which is antagonistic to health. It also gives to the blood those elements which are necessary to its strength and vitality. Thus by the use of Golden Medical Discovery purity of blood and power of body have been attained by thousands of sickly and scrofulous men and women.

No other medicine purifies the blood and builds the body as does the "Discovery." Accept no substitute.

It gives me much pleasure to testify to the merits of Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, writes Mrs Annie Wells of Fergusson's Wharf Isle of Wight Co Va. I can say honestly and candidly that it is the grandest medicine ever compounded for purifying the blood. I suffered terribly with rheumatism and pimples on the skin and swelling in my knees and feet so that I could not walk. I spent about twenty dollars paying doctors bills but received no benefit. A year or two ago I was reading one of your Memorandum Books and I decided to try Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Favorite Prescription and am entirely cured.

Dr Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are graduated to the requirements of woman's delicate system. They regulate the stomach liver and bowels.

MINING NOTES AROUND TOWN

Persistent rumors have been abroad for several days past of a deal between Elkton and Ingham and this is discussed to quite an extent in mining circles. It will be remembered that last spring just after the Elkton consolidation these rumors were very rife alleging at that time that with the 500 000 shares of its treasury stock the Elkton would purchase the Ingham. Since that time however there has been a development which would make such a deal much less likely at this time than it would have been then. A lease on the block of the Ingham ... which is nearest the Elkton property was operated by men interested in the Elkton believing that a rich ... of the Elkton ... extended into the Ingham. Their work proved to their minds at last that this shoot did not extend in its richness into Ingham ground, all the ore which they took from the stopes not averaging two ounces in gold to the ton.

An official of the Ingham company is authority for the statement which was made most emphatically to a representative of the Gazette yesterday that there is positively no deal on between the Elkton and the Ingham that all talk of such a deal is mere idle rumor and that any statements which ... made ... from the whole cloth ... Ingham people think ... worked ... leases ... but will attempt no ... until that lease expires ... until the development ... the lessees is completed. But this block of ground is but a small part of Ingham territory, all of which is being actively worked with gratifying results. Whether there is any sort of a deal on or not or whether the stock's advance is merely due to a demand for it certain it is that the ... condition of the mine warrants the price of the stock.

PRINCESS ALICE IS MAKING FINE SHIPMENTS

The Princess Alice Gold Mining company is making fine shipments of a very good grade of ore. Last Friday two carloads of ... were marketed and another shipment of about the same size is ready to leave the property now and it is expected that the ore will average about the same.

RETURNS RECEIVED FROM A LUCRATIVE SHIPMENT

The Lucrative company has received returns from a shipment recently marketed from their Eagle mine on a lot of about fifteen tons which was shipped to the Omaha and Grant smelter in Denver. They showed that they ran one tenth of an ounce in gold and 13 45 ounces in silver and carried in addition a good percentage of lead and manganese in all reaching the very good value of $38 a ton and as the treatment charges are very low about $5 a ton the profit is a very good one. The ore is coming from a drift at the depth of 200 feet and is being taken out only in the course of the development work along the two veins. The development work is progressing nicely and the showing in the breasts is as good as ever.

MARIPOSA'S RED BIRD CLAIM IS NOW LEASED

The Mariposa Gold Mining company has leased its Red Bird claim formerly worked by A J Finnerty to T J Moynahan who was formerly connected with the Los Angeles mine on Bull hill. The lessee has started work but instead of working through the National-Mariposa shaft, which Mr Finnerty used he has started operations on the scene of a new strike made by the new railway graders and has begun the sinking of a shaft.

WORK HAS BEEN STARTED ON THE ST PATRICK

Work was started Monday on the St Patrick lode which was recently secured by a Scotch syndicate. A good plant of machinery has been installed capable of operating to a depth of 1 000 feet and the first work to be done will be the sinking of the shaft to a great depth. It is now down 350 feet. The property is located just south of the Victor townsite.

GOLD KING EQUIPPED WITH NEW MACHINERY

Work was resumed Monday morning in the Gold King mine after the installation of a new plant of machinery which was put up in a very short time. The plant is of the most modern make and ranks the Gold King among the best equipped mines in the camp. Hoisting of ore has been started and the first shipment left yesterday. The output will average about 50 tons a day of good smelting grade ore. The shaft at present is down to the depth of 900 feet but it is understood that work will be commenced very soon to sink for another ...

MINING NEWS FROM FLORENCE

Special to the Gazette

Florence Colo, Oct 9—If possible the United Oil company is more actively engaged in drilling operations at present as it has been the past summer than at any previous time in its history in the Florence oil belt. It is expanding its territory and is prospecting in fields where a number of years ago oil was thought not to exist. Oil was found in well No 236 a few days ago. It is now cased and is in pumping operation. This well is thought to ... in condition to become a large producer. When oil was struck it came up in the hole several hundred feet. The company has had five strings of tools going in all summer and as soon as a dry hole was determined the rig would be pulled down and moved to another part of the field. During the summer a number of new wells were added to the company's list of producers. A short time ago Weaver & Co struck oil in a new well three miles south of the city. This was an entirely undeveloped part of the field up to a short time ago but these people have been very fortunate they having drilled three holes finding oil in each of them. Thoughts of building the fourth derrick are being considered. The Florence Oil company is operating in this territory having many wells in pumping operation and its own refinery. An extended field has been added to the Florence oil territory. About six years ago Philip Griffith drilled a well to the south nearer the Greenhorn range where he found oil and since that time has ... oil in a half dozen more. The United Oil company is drilling now on Rockvale and a short time ago made a new strike ... the present limits. The year 1900 will go down into history as being one of the most successful and productive years for oil that Florence has yet experienced and the probability is that next year will surpass this one in output. There are many companies operating in this vicinity namely The United Florence, Trenton Rock, Independent, Rocky Mountain, Weaver & Co and J I Griffith.

The territory promises now to yet be further expanded. Near Pueblo on the Little Fountain Dr Grannis of Colorado Springs is busy drilling for oil. This field heretofore has been entirely undeveloped but the indications are such that oil in paying quantities will be encountered. A small seam of oil was found in the first well but the hole was drilled so crooked that it was impossible to determine whether or not it would be a producer in paying quantities. The rig was moved from this hole to another location and the drill is now going down. The Routt County Improvement company of this city is busily engaged in Routt county. It is now down about 400 feet with its first well. The water that was encountered a short time ago is now cased off and no more trouble is being experienced from that source. It is only a question of a short time until it will be determined whether oil exists or not. Meanwhile the company is acquiring more coal land. This with the other companies now operating there seems to promise success. It is very evident now that a railroad will be built in there as intelligence has reached this city that a survey has been completed.

Cripple Creek Gold Exploration

Now Selling under 20 cents

Because: The Company owns a large amount of PATENTED ground, 150 acres in one piece

There is $15,000 cash in the treasury now, and the sale of town lots will bring in at least $75,000 more

The May Belle lease is mining from a large body of rich sylvanite ore which promises to make a second Gold Coin mine.

The Gloriana lease is working on a fine big vein of great promise.

The wonderfully rich Santa Rita vein undoubtedly crosses Gold Exploration ground.

We are naturally conservative, but we do not hesitate to say that in our opinion this stock is a safe investment, offering the promise of magnificent profits. On the present showing in the property we consider that the stock ought to sell at 30 cents within a very reasonable time.

We advise the immediate purchase of this stock in as liberal amounts as possible

THE COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Colorado Springs Oct 9—The market today on the Colorado Springs mining stock exchange was poor both in regard to the trading and the prices at which the scattering trades were made. There were some exceptions but they didn't prove the rule. The best trading was among the listed prospects which were fairly active but at lower prices. The trading among the shipping mines was light uninteresting and developed only one or two instances of strength. Although no serious losses were suffered by any stocks, fractional declines were quite general which, with the light trading, made the market appear dull. By those intending to invest however a little slump should be hailed with delight for here is another opportunity to get good bargains.

In the afternoon the trading was somewhat livelier especially among the unlisted stocks and there were some good instances of strength in the mines list. The feature of the afternoon's business was the heavy trading in Blue Bell stock which advanced to 15⅜ having advanced from 13½ in the morning. The cause of this is that the Blue Bell company owns a large block of the stock of the Katinka company and on the property of the latter there has been opened the extension of the Mary McKinney vein. In the prospects list there was 5 bid for Katinka stock as against 4 yesterday but no offer made. Coriolanus in the mines list was strong at 20 cents and Consolidated was quite firm at 12¼ but Findley lost a point to 15⅜. The trading in Matoa was quite spirited at one time and from 16 cents the price at which the stock changed hands in the morning it advanced to 17½. Portland was strong at $3 [illegible]. Acacia hangs low at 39 and Gould weakened to 32 [illegible]. Golden Eagle is quite strong at 4⅝ having advanced slightly today.

The trading amounted to 568 27[illegible] shares of which the cash value was $[illegible] 844

EASTERN MARKETS

New York Stocks.

New York Oct 9—The attention of the financial and speculative world remained quiet on the problems of the international money markets. All the world great money centers were kept under careful scrutiny to detect developments which might throw light upon the outcome of the contest now inaugurated for the possession of the available money supply. The engagement of £[illegible] in gold and its withdrawal from the Bank of England for shipment to New York marked the beginning of the contest and confirmed yesterday's estimate that sterling exchange at New York had fallen within the margin of profit for gold imports. Sterling exchange in New York which had steadied this morning after yesterday's downward plunge thereupon resumed a downward course and closed easy and still tending toward the new level of gold import. [illegible] the Bank of [illegible] discount rate in London [illegible] the threatened demand for gold and hardened slightly. Continental exchange both on Berlin and Paris weakened notably today on account of the heavy continental demand for cotton buying from that source having superseded for the time being the English demand and in the afternoon it was announced that [illegible] francs had been engaged in Paris for import to New York. Strength [illegible] the local traction was a factor. The market closed dull and irregular with few net changes of importance.

The movement in bonds was narrow and irregular. Total sales par value $[illegible]. United States refunding 2s [illegible] the threes registered and coupons declined ½ in the bid price.

Chicago Grain

Chicago Oct 9—November wheat opened [illegible] and for some time in a dull way managed to keep above 76½. Liverpool was lower and weather in the northwest favorable for the movement. More than anything else however the market felt the lack of public speculative interest. Bradstreet's statement of a decrease in the world's visible of [illegible] bushels compared with an increase last year of [illegible] caused a short lived bulge to 77. This however merely served to accentuate the public apathy and discouraged bulls sold liberally. November dropping to 76½ and closing weak [illegible] under yesterday at 76¾.

Corn was fairly active but barely steady.

Oats were generally dull and neglected. Provisions were quiet and easier.

SPORTS OF THE DAY.

HIGH SCHOOL RAISED FUNDS FOR ATHLETICS

The Colorado Springs high school is not going to be behind any up-to-date institution in the support that it gives to its football team this fall was well manifested yesterday afternoon in a meeting for athletics which followed the regular session of the school.

The result of the meeting was the pledging of $112 for the support of the football team and this amount will put things on a basis where the boys can work to good advantage throughout the season. The entire school was present at the meeting, the Eighth grade pupils also being present. The meeting was called to order by President Hood of the athletic association and addresses stating the object of the meeting and the need of hearty response were made by Mr Clark Mr M[illegible] and Mr Evans. The subscription included $10 from the [illegible] society, $10 from the Adelphi, $5 from Principal Mason and enough [illegible] subscription to make up $50. The remainder of the total $112 was contributed in amounts of 50 cents or less almost all the people in [illegible] something.

There was rejoicing among the students after the meeting over the success that had attended the effort in the [illegible] of [illegible] of athletics in all departments.

[illegible] all attention in Colorado is taking [illegible] at [illegible] and the [illegible] despite the hard [illegible] time from [illegible] the season is going to furnish about as much of sport as ever and [illegible] will be fur[illegible] about the same games. The normal school at Greeley and the Agricultural college at Fort Collins made a more determined effort at the beginning of the season to put strong football material into the intercollegiate games than they have ever done before and this is a [illegible] that within a few years [illegible] next season these schools will have developed sufficient strength to [illegible] future [illegible] but for this year it [illegible] the place [illegible] of the larger triumvirate to [illegible] State University the State School of Mines and the local college at Colorado Springs.

The [illegible] of the Colorado College eleven [illegible] measure retrieved its reputation in the eyes of the [illegible] from that which it received in the game with the Colorado Springs high school last Wednesday. The Victor football [illegible] men who have figured in some of the strongest university teams that the west has ever turned out notably Keers and Coles of Michigan and with the other experienced material that is included in the team should put up a very strong game provided of course that the men can get together for practice. Colorado College on the other hand went to Victor with a [illegible] including several players of practically no experience in a measure discouraged by its own lamentable showing on Wednesday and nerved up to a point where it had some confidence in itself only by the sheer determination not to disgrace itself and by paying heed to the admonition of Coach Ewing. While play was for a considerable portion of the game in the college territory and circumstances and conditions were favorable for the [illegible] which Colorado College [illegible] team showed ability to avail itself of those circumstances and conditions and also to hold the opponents when it came to a show down and the result of [illegible] is a matter of considerable credit to the home team

Perhaps the most interesting development of the week in Colorado in football was the showing made against East Denver high school by the School of Mines team. There is no doubt but that the Miners had as much to overcome this year as any team in the state and the fact that they ran up a big score on East Denver only [illegible] the score made in the same [illegible] by Colorado College with the prep team a week further along in training is significant. The Golden team was shifted to [illegible] the game [illegible] and [illegible] is given a chance to prove their worth [illegible] upon the whole it looks as though the Thanksgiving day game between Golden and Colorado College is not going to be a foregone conclusion in favor of anybody.

The Boulder game against the Boulder preps last Saturday was evidently mapped out to keep Boulder and Colorado College in the same class as long as possible. The score made by the preps against the varsity was a brother though not a twin brother to the score made on the local institution by the local high school. A high pass from center for a kick resulted in the local game in a safety and in the Boulder game a high pass for a kick resulted in a touchdown for the preps. Thus Golden the only team in the state that was at first regarded as certain to be far weaker than for years back is now the only one that has not been scored upon.

The Boulder and Colorado College games with their respective prep schools have resulted in a most intense interest in the game between the Colorado Springs high school and the Boulder preps. It is [illegible] that both schools are stronger this year than they have been before and the game between them is likely to be as keen a contest as any that will be played during the fall. The local eleven will have to go to Boulder for the game and the advantage of home grounds which is something will be against them. The boys will play the game on their merits however and believe that they can win out. There is little doubt but that either Boulder preps or the local high school will be the team to represent the second division of the interscholastic league in the final state championship game with the winner in the first division.

Who that winner will be it is difficult to tell. East Denver is regarded as the most likely but the conclusion is more a matter of habit than anything else. If the school has a candidate for right half back the coaching methods used by W C. Browning are keeping him in reserve. Browning has played the position up to the present time and anybody else who hopes to fill it is learning by observation. Still it may be that Browning is carrying work in school that will qualify him for the season.

The following comment on the football situation in the east, by Coach Woodruff of Pennsylvania will be of interest.

The material for the football teams at almost all the colleges is now pretty well determined. Those students who were under the ban of the faculty because of conditions at such institutions as make their players ineligible because of bad scholarship standing have now either passed off their conditions and made themselves eligible or have failed and are out of the game for this year. At the University of Pennsylvania there were an unusual number of football candidates who were on the anxious seat because of conditions in their studies. All of these men of any prominence have now passed with the exception of T. P Snook, George Johnson and Crookston, who were all prominent candidates for the team. These men are not eligible to play until next season.

The origin of these athletic eligibility rules was an intense desire to prevent any man from entering the university [illegible]

Notes and Comments

[illegible] various colleges to permit men who were not qualified to enter a university to matriculate without proper examination and even to go farther and offer money in one way or another as equivalent to inducements either at other colleges or in athletic clubs. When this rule was first passed it seemed to the writer that they were too unjust to be permanent in value but he found that he was mistaken in his judgment.

It would seem at first as though the writer is misinformed that Yale has no rule debarring a dropped student from taking part in her athletics before he re-establishes himself in his class. This is argued from the fact that Richard Sheldon the great shot putter who dropped out of Yale four years ago was then reported because of failure in his [illegible] is now playing up on the Yale team in his first year of study after such failure. It may be that he has studied in the interval and established himself or it may be that Yale which has ever been free from suspicion in athletics than any other institution, feels that it can permit any of its bona fide students to take part in athletics which after all would be a logical sentiment.

Sheldon ought to help the Yale team immensely [illegible] a finer physical specimen would be hard to find from one end of the world to the other. He has superb strength and athletic experience. His presence alone in the Yale line ought to make it [illegible] stronger than last year. However as I have remarked before I do not look so much at the material at Yale in guessing at its chances for this season as to the style of play which it is adopting and the consistency with which it will be carried out.

The material is all right. The question to be settled is whether Yale will be able to put into execution a simple and powerful style of attack. This should not be hard when we take into account the fact that there are many such systems of play now in evidence none of which is being or has been conducted behind closed doors. I would suspend judgment however until I have an opportunity to see the new style which was worked out and practiced last spring.

Harvard seems to be more fortunate than Pennsylvania in the class of games secured for the opening of the season. Last season Wesleyan seemed to give Harvard some work to run up a score above the teens, and on Wednesday of this week Williams gave the crimson another first class practice game. At Pennsylvania on the contrary both Lehigh and Franklin and Marshall were in such rudimentary form and so [illegible] that it almost [illegible] a pity to make them play through a short game. Neither [illegible] gave Pennsylvania an opportunity to determine any [illegible] about Penn's power either in attack or defense. This is unfortunate following a [illegible] as, like last fall since it is necessary to get a line on the unusually large [illegible] of candidates who were [illegible] out by the [illegible] and who are trying again this year.

Next Saturday's game do not seem likely to test the mettle of the different teams. But by a week from that time we will begin to hear of [illegible] and will be well able to [illegible] of the teams based upon a bigger foundation.

At first sight it would look as if Cornell had retrograded to some extent since last season. I am inclined to believe however that this is not true but that Mr Haughton has made up his mind to put aside any sentiment with regard to the size of scores made against weak [illegible] early in the season and to develop his men more slowly [illegible] the acme of condition for their game against Pennsylvania or Thanksgiving day.

Chicago is the team which the Pennsylvanians are trying to watch with anxious eyes. The players from the Windy City have put up such brilliant football during the last two years that not even the graduation of Kennedy, Hamill and others can lull [illegible] the fears of the Quaker contingent. It is impossible to tell beforehand what system of brilliant tricks combined with powerful straight football Stagg will spring upon his unwary opponents. [illegible] Chicago has seemed to have the same good luck as Harvard and Cornell in getting hold of tolerably vigorous teams for practice games.

Next Saturday Chicago will have an opportunity to try itself to the utmost. At that time Chicago will meet the University of Minnesota which is now being coached by Dr H J Williams the famous Yale hurdler who has proven himself to belong to the top rank of football coaches since his graduation from Yale. He had charge of the Penn Charter school team for eight years and during that time built up a simple and powerful system of attack and defense which made his team almost universally successful.

Minnesota secured him last summer as a member of its faculty and athletic director of the university. He has already brought his team up to a high proficiency when we consider the greenness of the game. They played poorly at first as might be expected from a lot of men who were just being initiated into a style of play which turned their former ideas of football topsy turvy but during their last two or three games they have distinguished themselves by effectiveness both in attack and defense.

I have heard directly from a graduate of Minnesota who saw several of their games this fall that Williams is hoping against hope in spite of his raw material to win out from Chicago by a combination of hard work and good fortune. This would be a great feather in his cap, especially if the maroon team should succeed in defeating Pennsylvania on October 27.

The chances however are strongly in Chicago's favor but the game will help immensely in preparing the team for its struggle in the east two weeks later.

Football games scheduled for Colorado next Saturday are as follows

Colorado Springs high school vs. North Denver high school Washburn field Colorado Springs

Colorado College vs Agricultural college Fort Collins

University of Colorado vs State Normal school.

The local militia company is getting up a football team. The members are some of the younger members of the company but they are putting in good practice and expect to have a strong team before [illegible]. The only game played thus far was [illegible] week with the mutes and resulted in a victory for the latter.

The members of the Colorado [illegible] Gun club are to be congratulated on the success of their [illegible] club shoot held last Saturday at the [illegible] range. There were seventeen competitors in the different events and some of the [illegible] for the day were excellent. The best [illegible] was one of twenty birds straight by D. D. Bonbright. A large number of young [illegible] men of the city [illegible] not heretofore participated in [illegible] of the character were [illegible] with the [illegible] [illegible]
